

SHRI DASBODH GIRI (SWAMIJI)

- Born in Bharat (India), Swamiji is a born yogi and poet who belongs to Mahanirvani Akhada, Haridwar. The Himalayan state of Uttarakhand. He lived and traveled alone in almost all the states of the country. Experienced the depth of human life and the original culture of the motherland.
- Till today he is living life as a wandering monk taking support (Bhiksha and Dakshina) from common people for food, accommodation, and travel.
- He is the yogi of the modern age and a source of power for Mahanirvana Yoga.
- He has a dream to take the science of yoga beyond body and mind.
- He lives with a philosophy “World is One”
- We all are One.
- Shri Das Bodh Giri is exploring yoga in its ground realities. He has got a touch of the ancient yoga branch Kal Yoga which has become extinct thousand centuries before.
- It's the union of our souls with eternal time. Taking our existence beyond worldly time and physical realities.
- He is living in mountains and caves with nature in the company of animals and birds.
- His secret breathing techniques and guided meditation in caves are rare and unique.
- He loves to cook and serve food for the hungry.
- Shri Das Bodh Giri writes poems with spiritual content which are motivating people around the world.
- He is the spiritual source of Mahanirvana Yoga.
- He is our motivation.

Om Mahanirvana